

LORI ANDERSON ART

loriandersonart.com

After retiring in 2002 and taking a trip to Italy, I had the time, and I was inspired to paint. I wanted to capture the architecture of Venice, the rolling hills and picturesque towns of Tuscany.

I started painting with acrylics and paint with oils. I love painting large flowers, animals, and landscapes. I love color and lots of it!

I am currently the President of Folsom Arts Association and Gold Country Artists Gallery in Placerville. My art is on display at Gold Country Artists Gallery, Folsom City Hall, Anita Rochelle Boutique and Fine Arts and More Than Olives on Sutter Street in Folsom.
