

Anna Mullisen bio

From her early childhood, Anna has been fascinated with color and fine details. At the age of 11, she won her first award, 2nd place at the California State Fair for her chalk pastel of a coyote. That same year she had her first commissioned art piece, to draw a beloved pet for a family friend. At age 12, she took 3rd place at the State Fair for two digital art pieces and a chalk pastel. She's a blooming young 14 year old artist who is thankful to be a member of the Folsom Art Association as part of her ongoing pursuit of art.
