

Phawnda Moore

Phawnda is an encouraging instructor with 20 years of experience at art centers, community colleges and art museums. She studied design at UC Davis (Class of '92) and calligraphy from the world's best lettering artists. She honors traditional design principles and embraces modern tools.

She leads an international mail art exchange and designs her own cards.

Phawnda has had a career as a graphic designer, calligrapher, editor, and has created communication projects for county and state offices of education.

She is also an award-winning author and her new calligraphy book will be released in the fall by a national publisher.