

BIOGRAPHY

ROSANNA MARIA SENA GARCIA

A native of Colorado, I grew up in the San Francisco Bay Area . I've lived in Granite Bay for 30 year. As a retired social worker, I began doing Art therapy as a mental release from work in the hospice and caring for the sick and dying patients.

I worked in many mediums; assemblage, paint, sculpture, fused glass and now encaustic and cold wax.

Traveling has always been my biggest influence to create ideas and memories that become reality. A Sacred Image.

Much of my art is religious and iconic. Is I feel blessed and inspired to express my mystical experiences in 2 or 3 dimensional form.

Art makes my Heart and Soul Happy.

I hope you enjoy, A view from the Ferry (encaustic Wax on Wood)