

Joann C. Lindelof-Wilson

BIO

Joann Lindelof was born in El Paso, Texas. She was the daughter of a US Airman. She currently lives in Folsom, CA. She received her AA in fine arts from American River Junior College and her BA in fine arts from California State University, Sacramento. Lindelof was the art director for the Sacramento Municipal Utility District taking it from drawing boards to the world of computers. Lindelof has exhibited in numerous galleries in the Sacramento and El Dorado region. She has been juried into local and international shows as well. Lindelof has received the best in show for wine label design twice in the California State Fair as well as being chosen to be in the fine arts exhibit eight times. Her paintings are in the public collections of the City of Citrus Heights, CA, the City of San Francisco, CA. and a member of the California assembly. Her work is featured in Northlights, Splash 16, watercolor book. She was a liaison between the Watercolor Association Sacramento Horizons and the Board of the Sacramento Fine Arts Center. She is a member of a prestigious critique group, Mystic, based in Sacramento. She is sought after for commission pieces and is included in many private collections.